There Is and There Are

Name: ..... Date: .....

Read the sentences. One thing: there is. Two or more things: there are.

There is a cat.

There are three dogs.

Is there an apple? Yes, there is.

Are there any bananas? No, there aren't.

- there is = one thing (a cat, an egg)
- there are = two or more things (two cats, five eggs)
- Negative: There isn't a dog. There aren't any dogs.
- Question: Is there a dog? Are there any dogs?